READING SKILLS

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

In the middle of a big forest, there was a tall tree that was older than all the others. The tree had seen many seasons, from cold winters to warm springs. Its roots went deep into the ground, and small animals like rabbits and squirrels lived near it. Birds made their nests in its strong branches, and the leaves made a soft sound in the wind. One day, a traveler came through the forest and sat under the tree to rest. He looked up at the tree and thought about how many stories the tree might know. The traveler felt connected to the forest and knew the tree was special.

26. How is the tree described in the passage?
 a) Short and young
 c) Old and tall
 b) Small and weak
 d) Thin and fragile
27. What did the tree provide for the animals?
 a) Food
 c) Water
 b) Light
 d) Shelter and homes
28. Why did the traveler stop under the tree?
 a) He was hungry.
 c) He needed rest and shade.
 b) He wanted to cut the tree.
 d) He was looking for animals.
29. What did the leaves of the tree do in the wind?
 a) They made a loud sound.
 c) They fell to the ground.
 b) They whispered softly.
 d) They stayed still.
30. What did the traveler feel about the tree?
 a) It was a special part of the forest.
 c) It was weak and old.
 b) It was just another tree.
 d) It was too big to climb.
